

London, September 2008

Headway Investment Partners II, L.P. has provided a DACH venture capital fund with additional follow on reserves for its investments by acquiring a tranche of each company in the fund portfolio through a special purpose vehicle. The SPV is managed by the general partner of the venture capital fund based on a management and co-investment agreement which enables the SPV to continue supporting the portfolio with additional follow on financing alongside the fund.