

London, June 2009

Headway Investment Partners II, L.P. acquired limited partnership positions in six venture capital funds from a large European corporate. The company was seeking to discontinue its private equity investment program and clean up its balance sheet. The funds are mainly focused on the life sciences and technology sectors and are predominantly based in the US.