

London, December 2009

Headway Investment Partners II, L.P. acquired limited partnership positions in three funds from a large European bank which was seeking to clean up its balance sheet by disposing of the few remaining private equity fund investments it still held.

The transaction comprised a European buyout fund, a US venture fund and an Asian growth fund.